Throughout this chapter we have read and watched videos of a variety of recipes. For the speaking portion of your final, you will be asked to have a conversation about how to prepare a couple of those recipes with a randomly chosen partner. You will each be given a recipe from the list on the day of your speaking final. You will ask your partner five questions about their recipe and answer your partner’s questions about yours. Please try to incorporate both grammar and vocabulary that we have studied throughout the semester.

Sample conversation:

A: How do you make French fries?
B: Well, you need to buy the ingredients: potatoes and oil.
A: Of course! Are fresh or frozen potatoes used?
B: Don’t buy frozen potatoes! I use fresh ones, but...they can also be made with frozen ones.
A: What is done first?
B: First, the potatoes are peeled and cut.
A: Should they be cut in large pieces?
B: No, don’t cut them in large pieces. Small pieces are better.
A: Ok. What is done next?
B: Heat the oil in a pot. Add the potatoes. Let them cook. Then, take them out and add salt. It’s easy!
